Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Charleston Awards Contract Modification

CHARLESTON, S.C. — Unidyne Corporation, of Norfolk, Va., is being awarded a modification in the amount $8,415,530 to N65236-99-D-3812, a March 1999 indefinite delivery, indefinite quantity, cost plus fixed fee type contract. This modification is for an increase to the number of man-hours in the level of effort for engineering, technical, and logistics services for the installation, removal, and testing of navigation and other systems in ships and shore facilities. These activities support Naval Sea Systems Command. This contract included a base year, with four one-year options. This modification is for an increase to the current, fourth option year and will bring the cumulative value of the contract to $52,301,688. Work will be performed in Norfolk, Va. (90%); San Diego, Calif. (5%); and Groton, Conn. (5%) and is expected to be completed by December 2003. The guaranteed minimum has been satisfied, and all further funds obligated will be through issuance of task orders. This contract was competitively procured under full and open competition. This modification was negotiated on a sole source basis with Unidyne Corp., the incumbent contractor. The Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center, Charleston is the contracting activity for this modification action (N65236-99-D-3812/P00027).
